Governor's Caucus Meeting

Members of all the Clubs in Division 8 met in the afternoon at Stone Tree for their Spring Caucus meeting. A number of business items were discussed and each club shared their recent activities and accomplishments.

80th Anniversary Dinner and Celebration

Head table guests were piped in by Bill Millman. Julia Levine provided piano accompaniment for the singing of O Canada and then for sing-a-long under the direction of song leader Past President John McLachlan. President Clarke McLeod was Master of Ceremonies and President Elect

Kevin Dandeno offered a toast to Partners of Kiwanis and Guests. Past President Don Sweatman was Sergeant at Arms. Governor Dr. John Button was the guest speaker and he was introduced by Lt. Governor Gary Levine. Dr. John outlined the beginnings of Kiwanis International and listed an impressive number of interventions that Kiwanis has initiated to make the world a better place. Dr. John said members of Kiwanis build a better world, one child at a time. Dr. John congratulated the Club and wished the members well. Past Presidents John Prettie, Bruce Price and John McLachlan entertained with a number of barber shop selections under the tutelage and accompaniment of Julia Levine. The longest serving supporter of the Kiwanis Club of Owen Sound, Santa Claus, paid a visit to extend best wishes and remind all in attendance that he would be back in seven months for the 60th Annual Parade. Legion of Honour Awards were presented to Past Presidents John Prettie and K Howard Hindman. Howard, a member for 55 years, also received the Mel Osborne Award. Vocalist Christy Taylor, accompanied by Brenda Dimoff, entertained with some humorous and then some sentimental songs about relationships. Ann and Past Lt. Governor Allen Kelly were recognized for the many, many hour of work they have invested in compiling historical information. For their contributions to "Kiwanis Reflections", they were presented with a gift of appreciation. A number of raffle prizes were drawn and the evening concluded with a social time.
