WARDEN LARRY MILLER, COUNCIL MEMBERS AND STAFF GATHER WITH KIWANIS

It was a busy day when our club met on Tuesday, June 4th to host the members of Grey County Council. Following the opening with the Builders Song, O Canada and the Invocation we had a sing-a-long with "Yellow Rose of Texas" and "I've Been Working on the Railroad."

President Gary welcomed everyone and asked that all in attendance introduce themselves.

K Stu Luckhardt won the 50/50 draw. There were two additional prizes: a lap top bag which was won by Robert Reid and 2 tickets to the Thursday performance of "Built on Rock 'n' Roll", won by K Steve Sired. Past President Arnold conducted a Chinese Auction for 2 Blue Jay tickets for an up-coming game. The tickets were won by the man with a new street in front of his store, Lorne Rich.

Warden Larry Miller brought greetings from the County and M.P.P. Bill Murdoch led a question session. Mr. Murdoch announced that road construction on highway 26 between Owen Sound and Meaford is to begin soon. He assured the group that the provincial government is committed to improving water quality.

Maurice Azzano, music teacher at OSCVI, introduced 5 students who visited to provide a sneak preview of their music show "Built on Rock 'n' Roll" which will be performed at OSCVI June 13th, 14 and 15th at 7:30 p.m.

Maurice explained that this is a credit course, which students take for the entire semester. The students give a great deal of effort as they learn many aspects of producing a show. Performers were: Brianna Greaves, Talia Azzano, John O'Leary and Rolph Gormandy. The producer of the show, Melissa Unger attended to answer questions and promote ticket sales.

Please come and celebrate the culmination of the course. A copy of their promotional poster is attached to this newsletter for your reference. You won't be disappointed.

An Evening At the Manor

Kiwanians and their guests enjoyed a splendid evening of socializing, fine savories, wine and entertainment at Highland Manor on June 6th.

Performers were: Katie Buchanan, Jonathan Innes-Lawless, David Pratt and Linda Bradford.

Treasurer Bruce Price made presentations to Tom & Judy Stobbe of Owen Sound Ledgerock for their sponsorship of Dancer and Dave & Cathy Heyns of Gallagher Power Fencing for their sponsorship of Donder. This support of the Kiwanis Santa Claus Parade is greatly appreciated.

Other special guests in attendance were Yvonne and Dave Robinson. Yvonne is Executive Director of the Music Festival, which supports and encourages young performers.

Thank you to K Rob Gallagher for preparing the food, Linda Van Aalst for donating and serving the wine and K Paul Neville for hosting the event.

Fine Session Highlights

- K Lorne was recently on TV promoting downtown and in yet another TV appearance talking about the flood in the basement of his store. At the meeting he advertised during introductions. Since Lorne did not promote Kiwanis during the time he was on TV he was fined $1.00.
- K Ted Horton explained to our group that Aphasia is a disorder in which people know more than they can say. The opportunity to teach cost Ted $1.00.
- Past President Bob Miller reported that he and Ann had recently attended “Pack Up Your Troubles” and did not see other Kiwanians in attendance at this very fine show. President Gary fined Bob $1.00 for not reminding us to attend.
- K Walter had attended a music presentation by the Georgian Gentlemen and had also taken a trip to Chicago. These pleasures cost Walter $1.00.
- K Stu had traveled to Meaford for the Chicken Show. He fared “not badly” and took the prize for the champion. Stu’s fine was $1.00.
