Kiwanis Club of Owen Sound "Serving the Children of the World"

Our guests were: Richard Harris, guest and son of K Gord Harris and Stew Andrew, guest of President Gary Levine. Welcome Richard and Stew!

President Gary won the 50/50 draw. Gary donated the winnings back to Kiwanis and appointed K Paul Neville as fines collector.

Past President Barry Ballantyne reported on Summerfolk. We had great success but this project requires 400-600 hours of work. We had help from our members, their friends and Golden K. Please watch for a survey from Barry and be sure to respond.

K Steve Sired provided a report on Whispering Pines. He reviewed some of the problems we have been faced with and listed the capital projects as: washrooms, the sewage/septic system and water system improvements. Currently, there is a "boil water order" at the camp.

Charitable Status Update

The process of applying for charitable status takes approximately 18 months. Our application is in and we have received confirmation that it is being reviewed. It will most likely be another year before we receive this status.

Board Meeting Highlights

- K Hermann Ackermann has requested a Leave of Absence from September 1st – October 10th. Hermann and Bernice are vacationing in Switzerland and Hermann said he is thinking of us while in the Alps.
- President Gary reported that the recent District Convention in Ottawa was very good and it provides a fabulous opportunity for realizing we are part of a whole international effort. Our members are encouraged to attend future district conventions. Dates and locations will be announced.
- We had good Kiwanis representation at the Desboro Fall Fair with Director Craig Johnston acting as a judge. Our club received mention in the Sun Times report.
- Ian Grant has been accepted for membership into the Kiwanis Club of Owen Sound. Ian's induction is scheduled for September 19th and Past President Mark Ostland is his sponsor.
- In recognition of President Gary's service to the club a donation has been made to Kiwanis International to acknowledge his work and commitment to our success.

Picture That!

KIWANIS magazine is sponsoring a photography contest for the entire Kiwanis family, and the grand prize for "best of contest" is a Fujifilm FinePix 2600 digital camera. The event will be announced in the September issue with a photography primer. The event helps kick off a redesign of Kiwanis International's official publication, which will be introduced with the October issue.

Here are the details:

☐ Images must be of a Kiwanis-family service or fund-raising project that occurs between January 1, 2002 and December 31, 2002.

☐ Images must be taken by an active member of a Kiwanis-family club.

☐ Decisions of the contest judges are final.

A "best-of-contest" image, and first-place photos, along with honorable mention selections, will be announced and exhibited in a future issue of Kiwanis magazine. All participating photographers give Kiwanis International permission to use their contest entries in KIWANIS magazine or other Kiwanis International materials and publications.

In addition to the best-of-contest winner, first-place recognition will be announced in Kiwanis for the following categories: "Kiwanis," "Kiwanis Junior," "Aktion Club," "Circle K," "Key Club," "Builders Club," and "K-Kids."

Submissions must be received at the Kiwanis International Office in Indianapolis, Indiana, before February 1, 2003, either by mail at Kiwanis magazine, 3636 Woodview Trace, Indianapolis, Indiana 46268, or by e-mail (300 dpi or higher in jpg or tif format) at magazine@kiwanis.org.

Fine Session Highlights

- K Phil Gignac confessed to a vacation at his cottage in Midland. He was fined $2.00
- Past President John Prettie had been to New York to attend a wedding. PLG Bob Nicol and K Ann Boisvert had traveled to attend the same wedding. John and Bob each paid $1.00 and Ann paid $4.00 because she had vacationed for a week prior to the wedding.
- K Kevin Dandeno attended the Blue Jays game courtesy of our Special Olympic Ticket offer. He was disappointed that more Kiwanians had not also been there. The chair of Boys and Girls Committee, Andrew Drury was asked to contribute $1.00 for the poor attendance.
- PLG Bob Nicol was fined for building a shed. K Ann Boisvert and K Gord Harris were each fined for building a roof.
