2007 Santa Claus Parade

Submitted by Chair, Cheryl Brine
The 2007 Santa Claus Parade was an event enjoyed by young and old alike. With over 60 entries in the parade there was something for every age group to enjoy.

Without the support of Kiwanis members we would not have been able to host the parade. Thanks to all of you for organizing, marshalling, canvassing, commentating and most of all just giving us extra help when we needed it. Please return your canvas kit as soon as possible if you have not done so already. The following are the top winners in each category:

School Category:

Hillcrest Elementary

Religious Category:

Faith Lutheran Church Desboro

Commercial Category:

RBW/Transcontinental

Non-Commercial:

Scott's & Dutton of Annan

Overall Parade Winner:

RBW/Transcontinental

Thank you again to all Kiwanis members who helped out with the parade. Plans are already underway for the 2008 parade.

Kiwanis Drive for More Members

Kiwanis International has a goal - By its 100th birthday in 2015 They want to have 1 million members. We can do our part locally, right here in Owen Sound. Tell your friends about Kiwanis. Everyone must know somebody who'd like to make a difference in children's lives, volunteer in the community, and meet new friends. Let either President Jed Phillips or Past President Linda van Aalst know and they will meet with them to discuss the Kiwanis organization.

Kiwanis International Convention

Sun and fun, and a chance to make a difference at the 2008 Kiwanis International Convention.

June 26 - 29 - Orlando Florida
Eastern Canada and The Caribbean have an attendance goal of 322.
