Kiwanians receiving applause were Ted Horton as usual, although he claimed he had been helping Past President Arnold

Cards were signed to be sent to Goldie, who suffered an injury to her arm in the ice storm, and to President to be Paul who had a bionic knee implant, and to Ian who had surgery.

Courtesy of Walmar productions several excellent pens were given away at the draw
The Winner of the draw was Fred.

The guest today was Mrs. Mae Kuhl.

Confessions included Bert for a Toyota Corolla (no doubt bought from Joe Vaughan's son in law), at $5.00, and Pres. Andy as usual for omitting the honorific expected.

David was fined for making his students do his work selling the tickets for the music concert. Don was fined for the Carruthers Nicol advertising with the new lacrosse team. Steve was offered a chance to prepay his trip south, but declined. He was fined for eating two deserts.

Past President Gary and LG elect spoke of the recent district meeting and some of the issues percolating.
