Anniversaries

None that anyone would admit to

The winner of the draw and the fines collector was Kevin.

A reminder to all to sign the apron for new member Linda at appropriate times.

Calendars for 2003 (of course) donated by Walter were won by Gord (he wanted the one with the women on it), Ann and Ian.

Kiwanians fined include Walter, for no poem or gift or tree prior to Christmas.

Other notable fines included Lorne for his new vehicle, a luxurious SUV. Please call Lorne at Kornblum's, 376 2399, for a demo ride.

Paul Strimas with some reluctance announced his retirement. The general consensus by those still working (and jealous) was that this was a finable offence.

Past Pres Don inquired as investigative chair of the attendance committee as to whom the person was who signed as "legal beagle". He quickly narrowed the field to Ted Horton, by virtue of the fact Ted signed his name.

Susan announced the forthcoming Builders Club meeting Tuesday January 21, 2003 at Notre Dame Catholic School. Members are welcome to attend.

The Social Committee is continuing its feverish work on the Winter Social Event.

Kiwanian Ted Horton announced on behalf of Kiwanian Howard a generous donation to the Club for the Music Festival in memory of his wife Mrs. Ruth Hindman. This timely intervention save Howard from a severe fining due to no poem or tree prior to Christmas.
