

Kiwanis Club of Owen Sound Newsletter January 9, 2003

Birthdays

Susan Davey Jan 4, Susan
McCarthy Jan 10, Wendy Nicol
Jan 11 and Marisol Bernardo Jan
12

Anniversaries

David and Pamela Daniel Jan 3

Guests included Harry Wagter and Glenda
Hambly

Kiwanians receiving applause were Arnold, Ted,
Phil, Bob and Peter

The winner of the draw and fines collector was Russ

Collectors of "no pay for applause" cards were
Jim and Peter, who was in need of such.

As a special event, the induction of the newest member Linda van Aalst took place, Past LG AI presiding. Linda and her family are long term Sydenham residents and she is the proprietor of the Wine Shop in addition to being on the municipal council for Sydenham (now Meaford). Linda has been a welcome guest the last few months and was welcomed by all to the Club.

Don't forget to sign the apron at the appropriate times.

Bert and Peter highlighted the special event for January 18, 2003 at the Roxy, the fund raiser and celebration of the life of Darryl Manjin called "Remembering Curly". They noted the worthy goal was to raise funds for the music festival scholarship

A special moment for the Club with Kiwanian Ted Horton receiving our appreciation for the generous donation in memory of Mrs. Bonnie Horton. The gift was to the Club for the Music Festival.

Fines included those who received applause, Past LG Bob for a wonderful school photo (hasn't changed a bit), Past Pres AI for a new van ($5) and Pres Andy for a new car ($10).

Past LG AI outlined at the meeting the new format for the reporting of various club and personal activities, call AI for the forms if you did not receive them